

The Nevada Historical Society Quarterly is actively seeking content for future issues. Content pertaining to Nevada, the Great Basin and the West is the focus of this peer reviewed journal.

We seek content from a range of subjects including but not limited to: Agriculture, Anthropology, Art, Ethnic Studies, Geography Geology, History, Literature, etc.

Articles: Research articles concerning broad themes, connections, movements, or problems that use primary sources and appeal to a wide-ranging audience are of primary consideration. Manuscripts concerning findings from original dissertation research or thesis are encouraged. We welcome articles that vary in content, research methodology, and interpretation that contribute to understanding some aspect of Nevada, the Great Basin, and the American West. Suggested length is 7,000-12,000 words, not including footnotes.

Notes, Documents, and Essays: Notes and Documents is a place for the reprinting of older documents and records plus contemporary essays heavily based on a single document, memoir or other personal account. These pages are a way for museums and public historians to educate our readership on unique items in collections and/or topics concerning public and popular interests. Photographic essays and short single-subject essays are appropriate for this section. Suggested length is 2,500- 5,000 words, not including footnotes.
